

Media Contact:

Greg Atkinson
VP – Public Relations & Marketing
304-558-3896 (office)
304-553-6773 (mobile)

Have you covered the Mountain State Art & Craft Fair for your media outlet before? Want to know “What’s new?” so that you can share that info with your audience? Then the list below as prepared with you in mind!

NEW ARTISAN EXHIBITORS

Shelia Brown - Baskets

Sue Cosgrove - Dried

Rose Dobbins - Fine Art

Pat Little - Folk Art

John Winter - Glass

Thomas Hay & Kimberley Clayton - Jewelry

Jay Mabe - Metal

Pamela Gatens - Multi-Media

Andy Altman - Photography

Frank Ceravalo - Photography

Elaine McCarty - Wearables

David Rinkes - Wood Accessories

Kay Forbush – Heritage (Rug Hooking)

Dee & Don Spangler - Hand Knotted Country Carpets

Linda Rostedt - Leather Tooled Masks & Pictures

John Montoya - Montoya Saddle & Leather Shop

NEW FAMILY ACTIVITIES

Professional Chef Cooking Demonstrations – Featuring “New Appalachian Cuisine” (July 3 – 6)

Cutting Horse Cattle Drive Exhibition (July 3 & 4)

Cast Iron Firecracker Chili Cook Off (July 5 - 11AM to 3PM) – this is an “officially sanctioned” cook-off and one of the last opportunities for chili maestros from our area to qualify for a regional competition.

Sawmill Replica with Antique Logging Equipment (July 3 – 6)

Exotic Animal Petting Zoo (July 3 – 6)

ART EDUCATION WORKSHOPS

Basketry by Carol Ross and Roger Besselièvre

July 3

10AM to 4PM (1 to 1 1/2 hours to complete basket)

Interactive Children's Workshop

July 3-6

Drawing and Storytelling by Delia Bowman Wach and Martin Wach

How to Carve and Etch Glass

July 4

9AM to 12 PM and 1PM to 4PM (drop by anytime)

How to Make a Hemp Bracelet By Lori Midkiff

July 5

9AM to 12PM and 1PM to 4PM

Please allow 1 to 1 1/2 hours